

Saturday, 30 August 2014

Matter 2

Issue 2 Conservation of Habitats

This has not been complied with.

Asham Wood is a Special Area of Conservation, under European Legislation, as well as a Special Site of Scientific Interest, and is meant to have buffer zones around it to protect it from degradation. This implies that there should be no further expansion of Torr Works.

Regulation 63

- 1) Requires review of Torr Works permission. Has this been done?